

The Daily Union Vedette.

FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 11, 1864.

Peculiarities of Man.

Among the many contradictions and peculiarities of human nature, stands forth prominently that disposition which from pure contrariety will induce a man to act and speak in a manner different to his own inclinations and wishes. That men frequently act and so speak, we have before had reason to realize, but not often so graphically as in the case of the late election, where we have known a few (we are happy to say, a very few,) men come to the polls, and while we personally knew that all their sympathies and wishes were with the Union party—yet, have seen them vote directly in the teeth of their own actual and frequently expressed wishes. All this too, caused by some trifling quarrel—some desire to vex—some misunderstanding with a friend, or wish to spite a supposed enemy! How truly did not the Pagan philosopher observe, that men are really but children? It is indeed, just for similar instances of action that children are put under the care of their elders, and punished when they disobey their reasonable behests.

There are doubtless throughout the entire country, instances in which ignorance of the facts has caused the loss of votes to the Union side, and no doubt abundance of cases exist in which religious or class prejudices have caused a loss of influence on the side of the Government; but, even these are not so much to be deplored as is the want of appreciation of the value of his vote and his own dignity as an American citizen, which could induce a man to cast away for pure spite, his influence so politically felt for good or evil in the election just past.

That such instances have been few, is a cause of rejoicing;—that they should in future be still fewer is highly desirable, and most of all, is it to be strongly hoped that our country may never again fall into such straits as to be at all at the mercy of men so wanting in principle, or so devoid of intellect.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE UNION DAILY VEDETTE.]

Chicago, Nov. 7th.

This afternoon's Journal says yesterday telegrams were received by John Wentworth announcing the coming of large numbers of bushwhackers. Col. Sweet, commanding Camp Douglas, was communicated with and orders were at once issued for the arrest of the desperados upon their arrival. The fact leaked out, and the faithful found means to apprise their friends, and the bushwhackers left the train at the city limits and scattered in the city in various directions. The military and police are constantly scouring the city, and have picked up hundreds of them. A propeller, with nearly a hundred suspicious characters, arrived here this morning from Canada. The military and police are after them and all will be captured. Col. Sweet for some time has been aware of the existence of a rebel plot to release prisoners at Camp Douglas and burn the city. His detectives have been at work and with success, and through the evidence obtained not being sufficiently conclusive to warrant the arrest of them as conspirators, it was deemed necessary to strike at once such ones as were unquestionably treasonable. Col. Sweet has proof in his possession that it was the plan of the rebel conspirators to release the rebel prisoners at Camp Douglas and burn the city. The camp was to have been attacked on two sides tomorrow night, the prisoners to be released and the city to be pillaged and burned. The police made a raid early this morning on the Donelson house on Canal street, and captured 40 bushwhackers, who had been tracked there. All of them were armed to the teeth.

A mounted patrol of 500 men has been organized by the citizens for the protection of the city. They will be on duty all night. There is a sufficient military force here to prevent any outbreak. Messrs. Richmond and Hancock, agents of the New York line of propellers, received a dispatch to-day that the Canadian steamer Georgian was fitted out as a pirate and is on Lake Huron.

Collicoon, N. Y., Nov. 7th.

The express train from Dunkirk this morning was thrown down an embankment forty feet by the displacement of a switch, and the engineer of the train was seriously hurt. There were also forty others, whose names are not known—of these a number are dangerously injured. Under the debris could be seen a number of bodies which are not yet recovered from the wreck.

Head-Qu'rs Army Potomac, 6th.

Quite a lively time between pickets on the left of the line on Friday night, resulting in the loss of a few men on each side. Yesterday there was a good deal of artillery firing near the Jerusalem plank road, without loss to us. Last night the pickets in the same vicinity opened fire shortly after dark and kept it up sharply all night. At about 11 a. m. the rebels attempted to advance their picket line to recover the ground that our men took last week, but failed. A citizen of Richmond arrived within our lines yesterday morning. He left there to escape conscription. He tells the old story of want and destitution in Richmond, the Georgia rioters operating nightly in the streets, and high prices for the necessities of life, etc.; also says the rebels in front of Petersburg are mining under our works, but very little faith is placed in the report.

New York, Nov. 7.

Commercial's Washington special says California officials express fears that the French and secession refugees in Mexico will endeavor to expel the American Minister from Sonora and excite trouble between the two countries.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 3d announces the capture of Plymouth by our gunboats. After three hours fighting the forts were passed and all their guns dismounted, when the rebels evacuated under a severe fire.

Washington, Nov. 7th.

It is intimated that during last week 50,000 persons left Washington to vote on the Presidential election. Letters are received at this city from an officer in command of one of the trans-Mississippi squadrons, dated Chattanooga, Nov. 1st, which says: My boats had two brushes with Hood's forces, and repulsed him both times, and he has now gone below the shoals, and a large portion of his army has arrived at Florence for the invasion of Middle and Eastern Tennessee. Hood is represented as tyrannical in the extreme. His men lived two days on corn and water, with only the addition of pumpkins stolen by the way. He suffers by the desertion of these people who say he intended moving southward, but was prevented by the threats of his soldiers to desert if he did not give them the promised harvest in East Tennessee. He will likely be bagged, as Sherman is pursuing with Gen. Gross flanking and Thomas ahead.

ELECTION RETURNS.

New York, Nov. 8th.

The Herald gives McClellan 37,500 majority in the city, with all the Wards in. The Union men claim the State by 20,000 majority.

Albany gives McClellan 2,500 maj.

Detroit, Michigan, gives McClellan 1,000 majority.

Wayne county, McClellan 2,000 maj.

The returns as far as received, show considerable Democratic gains.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 8th.

The city gives Lincoln 1,317; Mc-Clellan 25. Gallatin gives Lincoln 119; McClellan 12.

Lincoln's estimated majority in Iowa, is 30,000.

OHIO.

coln 28. McClellan 1; Iowa, Lincoln 168,
McClellan 12. Voting proceeds quietly.

Partial returns from several wards in this city at noon. Lincoln, 1,107; Mc-Clellan, 358.

Oswego, Nov. 8th.

It is reported there is a disturbance at Sackett's Harbor. A small squad of men, with one gun, has been sent there from Fort Ontario.

Boston, Nov. 8th.

The U. S. steamer Kearsarge arrived here to-night. She brings in as prisoners of war, the Chief Engineer and boatswain of the Alabama, and the Surgeon and sixteen men of the pirate Florida.
The latter arrived at Bahia by San Salvador, on the night of the 9th of October.
The Waschutis was also waiting in the harbor for coal. Capt. Collins determined to sink the Florida in port, and at 3 o'clock started for her, shelling her on the quarter without doing great damage.
Capt. Collins now called out to them to surrender, or he would sink her. The 1st Lieut. of the Florida replied that under the circumstances, he would surrender, and the Florida was towed to sea. Her Capt., Morris, and half of her crew were ashore. No lives were lost.
Twelve officers and fifty-eight of her crew were captured.

Chicago, Nov. 8th.

The election is proceeding quietly.
The startling developments of yesterday are having a most salutary effect. The Democrats are coming over in scores.
Mayor Sherman voted the straight Union ticket to-day. A large number of men were arrested this morning on the Central train from Shelby, Christian, Jasper, Fayette, and other counties, and examined before Provost Marshal Jones and Commissioner Milliker. Many of them confess that they were sent here to vote
the Copperhead ticket or fight, if not allowed to vote; and that their expenses were paid. They were to be furnished pistols by parties here on their arrival.
Walsh has confessed to implicating some leading Copperheads here in a diabolical plot to set free the prisoners at Camp

Local Matters.

GLORIOUS! GLORIOUS!!—The interruption of the telegraph was but temporary, as they transport to us to-day and yesterday joyful tidings of victory of the Union from every direction. The election of Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson is beyond a doubt. The threatened raiders in the Eastern cities have been arrested in their damming career: justice has triumphed over all their diabolical schemes, and the election passed off without a single riot. The Stars and Stripes of the American Nation float proudly to the breeze, and its supporters are nerved and braced stronger than ever.

Copperheadism is forever damned, and McClellan, Vallandigham, Wood & Co., have hung their harps on a prickly briar. Peals from the mouths of our thousands of cannon will rent the air with the shots of Lincoln and Johnson, and millions of throats will be made hoarse with the huzzas of loyal men. The last Thursday in November will indeed be a day of thanksgiving and prayer for America's sons.

We wonder if that "Corporal" who said he could not "conscientiously" vote for any other man than Geo. B. McClellan, has ever found the particular corner in which his conscience is located? He must be an exception to the general formation of his brother Americans.

The Eureka Stables has become the property of Mr. W. H. Guthrie, where the emigrant and freighter can house their stock with safety and reliance on its receiving due care and attention. They can have it sold there too if they wish.

The true and indomitable patriots, Companies L and M, 2d Cavalry, C. V., will strike with terror the "Sioux," fully as much as they terrified the devotees of McClellan, Davis & Co., on the 8th of November.

NEVADA BOYS.—There were but 126 votes cast by the Nevada Territory Volunteers at this Post, which is as follows: Lincoln 121; McClellan 5. Lincoln's majority, 116.

If all cities act as vigilantly as did Chicago—no raids by bushwhackers can effect them.

A PRINTER'S CON.—What is the most difficult punctuation? Putting a stop to a woman's tongue.

I. O. of Dashaways.

THE regular meeting of the Dashaway Society will be held in the Theatre on Friday evening, 11th inst., immediately after Retreat. In consequence of the Minister having engaged the Theatre for Thursday evening, which was our regular evening for meeting, the Society will meet on Friday evening to install officers for the current quarter, and to attend to other special business which will come before the Lodge. All Members in good standing are requested to attend.

sept 11th E. BAKER, Proprietor.

GEN. PAINE, in Western Kentucky, has an original way of dealing with rebels. In a recent address he said:

"My plan will be the only plan for Federal salvation in this district. It is substantially as follows: The first and great commandment is that all you disloyal, rebellious people shall not circulate one dollar of capital in all this land. Not a dollar, no debt or bill of exchange can be paid or made without my signature, and I pledge you I will not approve any money transactions of a disloyal man. All his capital, all his money, every cent of it shall be placed at the disposal of the Government."

"Talk about your rights! Why, you have no rights to talk about. A loyal citizen is the only one left with any rights at this time. And yet you come to me asking for a banking privilege. Great God! The devil might as well ask the Almighty for a front seat in heaven. No; if in your prosperity you have despised this great and good Government, you may soon have the privilege to love it in your adversity."

A FRENCH IDEA.—A Paris newspaper of thirty-two quarto pages, including articles on the theater, fashions, music, and fill the features of a popular weekly, is to be started for gratuitous distribution to all persons, its projector adds, "who commission me to subscribe in their name to a daily paper, to one of the principal French Reviews, or to a weekly illustrated paper." While that subscription lasts, the subscriber will receive the Journal des Abonnés, whose proprietor's profit is to consist of the trade allowance made to him by the papers to which he is commissioned to subscribe.

ROTHSCHILD AND A GERMAN BARON.—The following story is going the rounds of Paris: A small German Baron had occasion, as it seems, to see Baron Rothschild, of Frankfurt. The great financier was writing away for very life when Baron X. was announced.—He did not even lift his eyes, but said, "Take a chair, sir." The Baron, with true German touchiness about titles, said, "Sir, indeed! I think M. Le Baron did not hear my name. I am a Baron also—the Baron X." "Ah! a thousand pardons," said the banker, still writing; "you are a Baron—take two chairs, then, if you will be so kind, and wait till I have finished this letter."

FAME.—Thackeray when speaking about fame, would frequently tell the following anecdote:

When at dinner in St. Louis one day, he heard one waiter say to another: "Do you know who that is?"

"No," was the answer.

"That is the celebrated Mr. Thacker."

"What's he done?"

"Blessed if I know."

Two gentlemen were riding in a stage coach, when one of them misplacing his handkerchief, rashly accused the other of having stolen it; but soon finding it had the good manners to beg pardon for the affront, saying it was a mistake; to which the other replied, "Don't be uneasy, it was a mutual mistake; you took me for a thief, and I took you for a gentleman."
